

St. Philip

The first stained glass window on the left depicts St. Philip holding a cross in his left hand. In the lower right hand corner, you can see a basket representing Philip's presence at the feeding of the five thousand, and his response to Jesus in John 6:7. Near the top of the window is a set of scales, which is typically used in Christian imagery to represent the final judgment.