

St. Bartholomew

The next window contains an image of St. Bartholomew. He is holding a Bible and knife to represent his martyrdom, as it is believed he was flayed alive. Because Bartholomew is another name for Nathaniel, beneath his feet in the window you can see a fig tree, a representation of 1:43-51, where Jesus calls Nathaniel as he is sitting under a fig tree. At the top of the window you can see a dove, which, though not associated with St. Bartholomew directly, is a common Christian symbol of the Holy Spirit.
