

Mary, Queen of Apostles

Near the altar is a window that depicts Mary as Queen of Apostles. Beneath her feet, you can see incense rising up to represent the prayers of the faithful to God, and the intercession of Mary on their behalf. Above her head is the Holy Spirit sending out twelve tongues of fire as if to the apostles. A tongue of fire rests on her own head, too, representing her presence with the apostles at Pentecost.