

Morning Star- Mary, as a morning star shines before the sunrise, preceded the birth of her son Jesus, the Light of the World (the Sun). The twelve points of this star correspond to the twelve stars that surround Mary's head (Mary as the woman clothed with the sun) in the book of Revelation. The number twelve hearkens back to the twelve tribes of Israel and also to the twelve apostles.