

St. Paul

This window depicts St. Paul with a sword and a shield beneath his feet. This imagery comes from Ephesians 6, in which St. Paul encourages believers to put on the shield of faith and the sword of the Spirit. At the top of the window are two crossed knives, which symbolize both St. Paul's martyrdom, and the martyrdom of the other apostles.